Chukwuemeka Anyiam-Osigwe

Chukwuemeka Anyiam-Osigwe is a geology graduate of the University of St Andrews, Scotland, and currently works as a digital marketing strategist at 141 Worldwide. He is also the Director of Public Relations at Pride Multi-media Ventures.

Soon after graduating from university, Chukwuemeka worked in Nigeria's mining industry as a field geologist for Pedmacgrek Mines Ltd at their sand dredging operations in Awoyaya, Lagos.

Keen about male fashion, Chukwuemeka created the Rare and Debonair Gentleman brand in 2016. It is an image consultancy and gentleman's bespoke clothier, built on the tenants of style, confidence and charm. The aim is to encourage millennial gents find their own unique sense of fashion premised on the aforementioned principles.

Chuwkuemeka enjoys poetry and is a member of Loudthotz poetry club in Lagos. In his spare time, he performs as a spoken word artist and has featured at the 2017 African Movie Academy Awards, 2017 Role of Women in Emerging African Democracies (ROWEAD) Conference and 2018 Pride Women Conference.

Gideon Okeke

Gideon Okeke is one of a few consummate artists within the Nigerian entertainment industry whose body of work distinguishes and sets him apart as a formidable African ambassador.

An alumnus of the esteemed Lee Strasberg Theatre and Film Institute New York, NY (2011/2012), Gideon's career boasts of well over a decade's worth of working experience, with thousands of on-screen hours and live appearances/ performances to boot. He has earned himself a well-deserved place in the interests of audiences across Africa, and its diaspora, by being consistent in his salient quest for excellence.

Noble Igwe:

Noble Igwe is the founder and Chief Marketing Officer of the 360 Group, which has 360nobs.com as its most popular entity. He is a graduate of Urban and Regional Planning from University of Nigeria, Nsukka with a certificate in Entrepreneurship Management from the prestigious Pan African University. He started his career as a Fine Arts teacher in Gombe High School, Gombe during his national youth service. He later moved to Lagos in 2005 to work as a Call Centre Advisor for Virgin Nigeria.

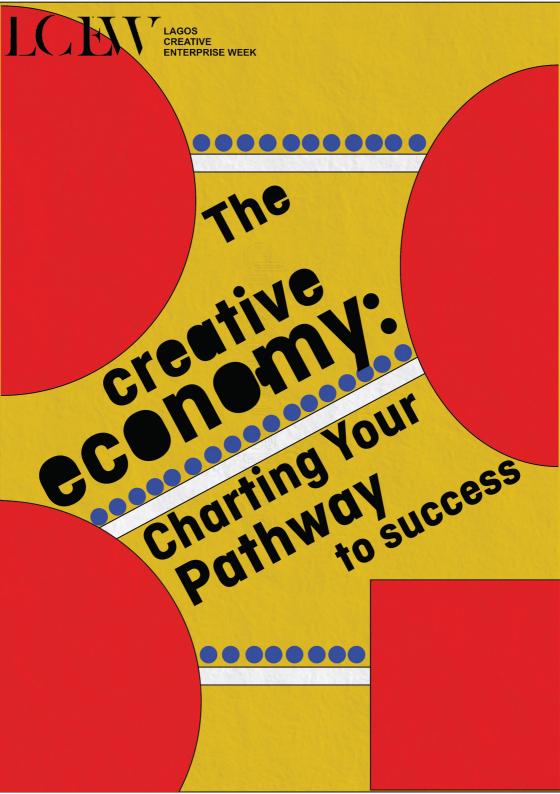

Noble is one of those who has translated his hobbies into a business. He has always been a lover of events and even while in paid employment continued to juggle his job alongside event promotion, PR and production. In 2015, Noble launched Style Vitae, an all-round luxury/ affordable fashion and style website that has since taken the Nigerian digital space by storm. And in 2018, he launched his clothing line, Tribes by Nobs.

Shola Bamidele

Shola Bamidele is a communications consultant with experience in diversity consulting. He is an advocate for diversity and inclusion with particular focus on mental and emotional well-being, gender equality, and sexual and human rights. He has served as project manager for The Nigeria Prize for Difference and Diversity, Diversity Summit, and #WithChude show.
